II. BACH FOR STRINGS

Saturday, February 23 • 7:30pm

The Galax Quartet • Works of the greatest master, performed on a balanced ensemble of period instruments.

Following their successful Baroque Festival debut in 2009 (Cosmos: The Art of Fugue), the Galax Quartet returns with a program of Bach and company. The ensemble is modeled after an early version of the string quartet (two violins, cello and viola da gamba) developed by 18th-century composer and gamba virtuoso Carl Friedrich Abel. Since 2005 the Galax Quartet has explored early classical and newly-commissioned works alike, performed in unexpected collaborations.

Location: Holy Cross Church.

III. MUSIC OF SCOTLAND

Saturday, March 16 • 7:30pm

Featuring the Baltimore Consort

The Baltimore Consort presents a magical journey through Scotland, including popular Native Aires, songs by A Courtly Poet, plenty of The Scotch Humour, culminating in a Crossing to the New World. With fond memories of their last visit in 2000, the Baroque Festival is proud to welcome back one of America's favorite early music ensembles. Special Event: Youth Chamber Music Competition awards performance. Location: UCSC Music Recital Hall.*

IV. HASTEN TO THE SEA

Saturday, April 13 • 7:30pm

Tim Rayborn (voice, medieval strings, percussion) and Rita Lilly (voice, symphonie)

In an exciting collaboration, multi-instrumentalist Tim Rayborn and vocalist Rita Lilly present medieval instrumentals, secular cantigas, songs of troubadors and trobairitz of 12th to 13th-century Portugal, Spain, and France. Forming this program's highlight is the magnificent Cantigas de Amigo song cycle, a seven-part collection that was miraculously rediscovered in the 20th century inside the binding of a later book. Acclaimed specialist of medieval music Tim Rayborn was last featured on our series in 2008 (The Flame of Love). Location: UCSC Music Recital Hall.*

Preston Boomer

Baroque music opens the world of historic sound, and can lead both musician and audience on countless voyages of musical discovery. Travel through time with our performers and hear the amazing 'new' sounds of 'old' instruments and music.

Artistic Director
